MEMBERSHIP

8. The members of the Club are the people whose names are entered in the register of members.

9. The first members are the people who sign these Rules in applying for registration.

10. Membership is open to any person firm or corporate body who or which:

- a. is a supporter of the Club; or
- b. has an interest in the game of football in the Area and is in sympathy with the objects of the Club; and
- c. agrees to be bound by these Rules and Rule 6 and 113 in particular.
- d. agrees to be bound by the Club's equality statements, child protection policy and codes of conduct.

11. The Club Board shall have power to refuse membership to any person who does not in the opinion of the Club Board meet these requirements.

12. Every member holds one ordinary share in the capital of the Club. No member may hold more than one ordinary share in the Club either individually or jointly

13. The Club Board will decide and issue a form of application for membership. Members are to pay an annual subscription of such reasonable sum as the Club Board shall decide, the first payment to be made at the time of application for membership. The sum of £1 from each membership application shall be applied to purchase the minimum £1 shareholding in the Club.

14. The Club Board will have power to offer associate or affiliate status with or without payment or subscription to corporate or unincorporated bodies which support the aims of the Club, and may recognise that a share in the capital of the Club is held on behalf of any unincorporated organisation but no-one shall be entitled to vote at any general meeting of the Club who is not the registered holder of at least one fully paid up share in the Club.

15. The Club Board shall have power to offer a class of junior membership with or without payment to minors under the age of 16 but no person under the age of 16 shall be entitled to a share in the club or be entitled to vote at any general meeting of the Club.

16. No person under the age of 16 may be an officer of the Club.

17. A corporate body or firm which is a member may by resolution of its governing body appoint any person it thinks fit to be its deputy and revoke such an appointment. A copy of any such resolution signed by two members of the governing body and in the case of a local authority by the authorised officer of the Council shall be sent to the Secretary of the Club. The deputy will be entitled to exercise all rights of membership on behalf of the corporate body including seeking election as an officer and speaking and voting at any general meeting. References in these Rules to a member being present in person include members which are corporate bodies being present through their deputy.

SHARES

18. The Club has ordinary shares and may have Capital Funding Shares in accordance with the provisions set out at Rule 26. The following provisions apply to shares in the Club:

- a) The ordinary shares of the Club shall be of the nominal value of £1.00;
- b) Shares shall be withdrawable only in accordance with the provisions of these Rules.
- c) Shares shall not be transferable except on death or bankruptcy or with the consent of the Board;

- d) Application for shares shall be made to the Board of the Society who shall allot to members, upon their admission, the share or shares for which they have applied provided that the total number of shares allotted to any member shall not exceed the maximum shareholding permitted by law;
- e) Shares shall be paid for in full on allotment.

WITHDRAWAL OF SHARE CAPITAL

19. Ordinary shares may be withdrawn by members upon giving three months' notice to the Club provided that:

- (a) all withdrawals shall be paid in the order in which the notices were received by the Club;
- (b) except where a member intends to terminate her/his membership of the Club, a member shall not be entitled to withdraw shares so as to leave her/him with less than the minimum shareholding;
- (c) the Board may waive the notice required for a withdrawal and may direct payment to be made without notice or on such shorter notice as they consider fit;
- (d) the Board at their sole discretion may suspend the right to withdraw either wholly or partially, and either indefinitely or for a fixed period. The suspension shall extend and apply to all notices of withdrawal which have been received and remain unpaid at the time the Board suspend the right to withdraw. Where the suspension is for a fixed period, such period may be extended from time to time by the Board;
- (e) during any period when the right of withdrawal has been suspended under Rule 19(d), the shares of deceased members may, if the Board agree, be withdrawn by their personal representatives upon giving such notice as the Board may require;
- (f) subject to Rule 20, the amount to be paid to a member on withdrawal shall be the amount paid up or credited on the shares to be withdrawn, except where the shares are subject to a reduction in their value in accordance with the provisions of these Rules;
- (g) interest shall be payable on any share in respect of which a notice of repayment has been given until the date of repayment.

20. Any share withdrawn in accordance with the above Rule shall be cancelled, provided that where the member intends to terminate her/his membership of the Club the £1 minimum shareholding purchased by each member as part of their application for membership as per Rule 12 shall be cancelled and the amount subscribed shall become the property of the Club.

21. Members may withdraw from the Club by withdrawing all their shares in the Club in accordance with Rule 19 or, if the right to withdraw has been suspended as provided for in that Rule, by surrendering all their shares to the Club. Upon such surrender the Board may in their discretion pay to the withdrawing member the amount paid up or credited in the shares surrendered.

22. The Society may deduct such reasonable sum to cover administrative costs of withdrawal from the monies payable to a member on the withdrawal of shares in the Society.

LIEN ON SHARES AND RIGHT OF OFFSET

23. The Club shall have a lien on the shares of a member for any debt due to it by the member and may set off any sum standing to the member's credit with the Club in or towards payment of such debt.

REMOVAL OF MEMBERS

24. A member shall cease to be a member if they:

- a. fail after written demand to pay their annual subscription;
- b. die (in the case of the individual);

- c. cease to exist (in the case of a body corporate);
- d. are the nominee of an unincorporated Society or firm which is wound up or dissolved;
- e. are the nominee of an unincorporated organisation or firm which removes or replaces them as its nominee;
- f. cease to hold the minimum amount of shareholding required in accordance with these Rules;
- g. are expelled under these Rules; or
- h. withdraw from membership by giving at least one month's written notice to the Secretary.

25. A member may be expelled by a resolution carried by the votes of not less than threequarters of the members present in person or by proxy and voting on a poll at an annual or special general meeting of the Club of which notice has been duly given. The following procedure will be adopted:

- a. A written complaint must be made to the Club Board that the member has acted in a way detrimental to the interests of the Club.
- b. Details of the complaint must be sent to the member in question not less than one calendar month before the meeting with an invitation to answer the complaint and attend the meeting.
- c. At the meeting the members will consider evidence in support of the complaint and such evidence as the member may wish to place before them.
- d. If the member fails to attend the meeting without due cause the meeting may proceed in their absence.
- e. A person expelled from membership will cease to be a member immediately following the vote at which the resolution to expel them is carried.
- f. No person who has been expelled from membership is to be re-admitted except by a resolution carried by the votes of three-quarters of the members present in person or by proxy and voting on a poll at any general meeting of which notice has been properly given.

CAPITAL FUNDING SHARE PROVISIONS

26. In order to fund its business, the Club may issue Capital Funding Shares. Capital Funding Shares may be issued in such denomination and upon such terms as the Board shall decide, subject to the Rules, and in particular the following provisions:

- (a) Capital Funding Shares shall not be withdrawable except with the consent of the Board;
- (b) The Board may specify a date or dates on which Capital Funding Shares may be withdrawn and may make provision for the withdrawal of different issues of shares on different dates;
- (c) The Board may pay interest to holders of Capital Funding Shares as compensation for the use of such funds, but the rate of interest shall be no higher than the Board considers to be necessary to attract the funding needed for the business of the Club. The rate may vary between different issues of shares.
- (d) Capital Funding Shares may only be issued to members.

On the solvent dissolution or winding up of the Club, holders of Capital Funding Shares shall have no financial entitlement beyond payment of outstanding interest and repayment of paid-up share capital.

ORGANISATION

27. The powers of the Club are to be exercised by the members, the Club Board and the Executive Board of the Club in the way set out in the Rules which follow.

RIGHTS AND POWERS OF MEMBERS

28. The members have the rights and powers available to them under the law relating to Industrial and Provident Societies and are to decide in particular the issues specifically reserved to them by these Rules.

Every member shall be entitled to vote at a general meeting, in accordance with the most recent Elections Policy to have been approved by the membership, providing that they have been a member of the Club for a continuous period beginning with the day 28 days before the date on which the meeting was originally scheduled to be held.

29. The members may by a resolution carried by not less than two-thirds of the members voting at a general meeting but not otherwise give directions to the Society Board. A member wishing to propose a members' resolution for consideration at a general meeting shall give notice in writing to the Secretary of such wish, and of the justification for, form and content of the resolution, not later than noon 45 days before that meeting is to be held. Such notice shall not be effective unless signed by the proposer and 5 other Members. The Society Board shall ensure that such proposed resolutions are consistent with these rules and the laws governing the society's contractual, statutory and other legal obligations according to the Resolution Policy. The following provisions apply to any directions given:

a. Any direction must:

- i. be consistent with these Rules and with the Club's contractual, statutory and other legal obligations; and
- ii. not affect the powers and responsibilities of the Club Board, Chief Executive and Executive Board under Rules 31, 32, 33 and 34.

b. Any person who deals with the Club in good faith and is not aware that a direction has been given may deal with the Club on the basis that no direction has been given.

c. For a period of 10 days after the closure date for resolutions and members' votes, a standing subcommittee of members in conjunction with the Club Secretary and the board member for governance, will meet to consider the consolidation of all motions on a similar theme which if passed would negate each other. In doing so, the committee will seek agreement from all proposer signatories to the relevant motions. Where agreement is gained, the original motions will be withdrawn with the consent of all proposers, and the consolidated motion will go forward to the General Meeting. A consolidated resolution or members' vote shall be treated as any other resolution or members' vote.

Where consent from all the proposers of motions subject to consolidating cannot be obtained, but there is a majority of the proposers in favour of consolidation, the motions will be consolidated.

The proposers supporting the consolidated motions will have their names removed from the original motions and appended to the consolidated motion.

Where a minority of the proposers of the motion so consolidated do not agree with this action, they may proceed with the motion in its original form, subject to the rule governing resolutions and members votes i.e. that the motion is supported by a minimum of 5 members.

If no agreement on consolidation can be reached, the relevant motion or motions will proceed to the GM as originally drafted.

30. The functions of general meetings (excluding any general meeting requested by members which shall only deal with the business in the members' requisition) shall include:

- a. to consider any member's resolution, notice of which has been given to the Secretary in accordance with Rule 29;
- b. to consider any resolution proposed by the Board;
- c. to consider the application of any surplus in accordance with Rule 6; and

d. to consider any other business relating to the affairs of the Society which any member or the Board may wish to raise but no resolution may be put to the vote of the meeting under this item.

In addition, the functions of the Annual General Meeting shall include:

- e. receiving:
 - i. the revenue account and balance sheet for the previous financial year; and
 - ii. a report on the Club's performance in the previous year;
- f. appointing:
 - i. financial auditors;
 - ii. auditors of any other aspect of the performance of the Club;
- g. electing officers of the Club.

DUTIES AND POWERS OF CLUB BOARD

31. The Club Board is to ensure that the business of the Club is conducted in accordance with these Rules and with the interests of the community and in accordance with any relevant Statements of Best Practice published by Supporters Direct, and may appoint and supervise the Chief Executive and the Executive Board. The Club Board:

- a. may exercise all the Club's powers which are not required by these Rules or by statute to be exercised by the Club in general meeting;
- b. may delegate any of its powers to committees consisting of such of its own number and others as it thinks fit who shall, in the function entrusted to them, conform in all respects to the instruction given to them by the Club Board. The operation of such groups is to be conducted in accordance with this rule, with Rules 82-84 and the following provisions apply to any such delegation:
 - i. The Club Board may retain or give up the right to deal itself with issues delegated;
 - ii. Any delegation may be revoked and its terms may be varied;
 - iii. The proceedings of any sub-committee shall be governed by the rules regulating the proceedings of the Club Board so far as they are capable of applying;
- c. may call upon the Chief Executive and/or Secretary to report or procure a report in writing upon any aspect of the affairs of the Club;
- d. shall appoint and dismiss the Chief Executive and other members of the Executive Board and the Secretary and decide and fix the terms of their employment and have power to act in place of the Chief Executive or the Executive Board where they cease to act or are unwilling or unable to act;
- e. shall approve the policies or strategies to be followed by the Executive Board and all budgets and other financial plans;
- f. shall determine from time to time the categories of transaction which require the approval of the Club Board.

DUTIES AND POWERS OF CHIEF EXECUTIVE AND EXECUTIVE BOARD

32. If a Chief Executive is appointed, he or she will, subject to the duties and powers of the Club Board as set out in these Rules, manage the Club's business in accordance with these Rules and will have power to act in the name of the Club.

33. If other members of an Executive Board are appointed they together with the Chief Executive will, subject to the duties and powers of the Club Board as set out in these Rules and to directions as to their responsibilities given by the Club Board, manage the Club's business in accordance with these Rules and will have power to act in the name of the Club.

34. Any person acting in good faith and without prior notice of any irregularity is not to be concerned to see or enquire whether the powers of the Chief Executive or the Executive Board have been properly exercised.

SECRETARY

35. The Club is to have a Secretary whose functions will include:

- a. acting as Secretary to the Club Board;
- b. attending all meetings of the Executive Board;
- c. acting as Secretary of any subsidiary company or society of the Club;
- d. summoning and attending all general meetings of the Club and keeping the minutes;
- e. keeping the register of members and other registers required to be kept by these Rules;
- f. monitoring the conduct of the Club's affairs to ensure that it is conducted in accordance with these Rules;
- g. arranging for members of the Club Board to obtain independent legal, accounting tax or other professional advice if he or she considers it appropriate;
- h. publishing to members in an appropriate form information which they should have about the affairs of the Club;
- i. preparing and sending all returns required to be made to the Registrar.

36. The Secretary shall not be a member of:-

- a. the Executive Board;
- b. any board or committee of management of any subsidiary company or society of the Club.

GENERAL MEETINGS

37. The Club is to hold at least two general meetings a year. One of those general meetings shall be the Annual General Meeting) which shall be held within six months of the end of each financial year.

38. All general meetings other than annual general meetings are called general meetings and are to be convened by the Secretary either:

- a. by order of the Club Board; or
- b. if a written requisition signed (except where these Rules say otherwise) by 100 members or 10% of the membership eligible to vote, whichever is the lower, is delivered to the Club's registered office. The requisition must state the purpose for which the meeting is to be convened and any resolutions to be put, if any. If the Secretary is not within the United Kingdom or is unwilling to convene a general meeting any Club Board member may call a general meeting.

39. A general meeting called in response to a members' requisition must be held within 28 days of the date on which the requisition is delivered to the registered office. The meeting is not to transact any business other than that set out in the requisition and the notice convening the meeting.

40. Notice of a general meeting is to be given either:

- a. In writing, or
- b. by notice in any newspaper circulating in the Area; or
- c. where a member has agreed to receive notice in this way, by such electronic means as the Club Board shall decide at least 21 clear days before the date of the meeting. The notice must:
 - i. be given to all members and to the members of the Club Board and to the auditors;
 - ii. state whether the meeting is an annual or general meeting;
 - iii. give the time, date and place of the meeting; and

iv. indicate the business to be dealt with at the meeting.

41. Any notice to a member may be given either:

- a. personally; or
- b. by sending it by post in a prepaid envelope addressed to the member at their registered address; or
- c. by leaving it at that address;
- d. or (if a register of e-mail addresses is maintained by the Club and the member has notified the Club of an e-mail address) by e-mail to their registered e-mail address.

Notices or communications sent by first class post to members at their registered address are deemed to have been duly served 48 hours (excluding Sundays) after being posted. Proof that an envelope containing a notice was properly addressed, prepaid and posted shall be conclusive evidence that the notice was given. The proceedings at a general meeting are not invalid if:

- i. there has been an accidental omission to send a notice to a member or members; or
- ii. the notice is not received by a member or members.

42. A member present either in person or by proxy at any meeting of the Club shall be deemed to have received notice of the meeting and, where requisite, of the purposes for which it was called.

43. Before a general meeting can do business there must be a quorum present. Except where these Rules say otherwise a quorum is 20 members or 10% of the members entitled to vote at the meeting whichever is lower.

44. The Club Board may decide where a general meeting is to be held and may also in the interests of democracy:

- a. arrange for the annual general meeting to be held in a different part of the Area each year;
- b. make provision for a general meeting to be held at different venues either simultaneously or at different times. In making such provision the Club Board shall also fix an appropriate quorum for each venue, provided that the aggregate of the quorum requirements shall not be less than the quorum set out in the previous Rule.

45. It is the responsibility of the Club Board, the Chair of the meeting and the Secretary to ensure that at any general meeting:

- a. the issues to be decided are clearly explained;
- b. sufficient information is provided to members to enable rational discussion to take place;
- c. where appropriate, members of the Executive Board, experts in relevant fields or representatives of special interest groups are invited to address the meeting.

46. If the chair of a general meeting or the Secretary considers that steps should be taken to ensure:

- a. the safety of people attending a general meeting; or
- b. the proper and orderly conduct of the meeting;

They may take whatever steps are necessary to deal with the situation. They may in particular, if they think it necessary:

- i. require people to prove their identity;
- ii. arrange security searches;
- iii. stop certain things being taken into the meeting;

iv. refuse to allow members into the meeting or have members removed from the meeting, where the behaviour of those members is or is likely to be violent or disruptive.

47. The Chair of the Club Board or in his or her absence some other Club Board member nominated by the members of the Club Board shall preside at all general meetings of the Club. If neither the Chair nor such other Club Board member is present and willing to act, the Club Board members present shall elect one of their number to be Chair and if there is only one Club Board member present and willing to act he or she shall be Chair. If no Club Board member is willing to act as Chair or if no Club Board member is present within fifteen minutes after the time appointed for holding the meeting, the members present and entitled to vote shall choose one of their number to be Chair.

48. If no quorum is present within half an hour of the time fixed for the start of the meeting:

- a. if the meeting was convened on a requisition of the members, it is to be dissolved;
- b. in any other case the meeting shall stand adjourned to the same day in the next week at the same time and place or to such time and place as the Club Board determine. If a quorum is not present within half an hour of the time fixed for the start of the adjourned meeting, the number of members present during the meeting is to be a quorum.

49. Subject to these Rules and to any Act of Parliament, a resolution put to the vote at a general meeting shall, except where a poll is demanded or directed, be decided upon by a show of hands.

50. On a show of hands every member present in person, and on a poll every member present in person or by proxy is to have one vote. In the case of an equality of votes the Chair of the meeting is to have a second or casting vote.

51. Unless a poll is demanded, the result of any vote will be declared by the Chair and entered in the minute book. The minute book will be conclusive evidence of the result of the vote.

52. A poll may be directed by the Chair or demanded either before or immediately after a vote by show of hands by not less than one-tenth of the members present at the meeting (in person or by proxy).

53. A poll demanded on the election of a Chair or on a question of adjournment shall be taken forthwith. A poll demanded on any other question shall be taken either forthwith or at such time and place as the Chair directs not being more than thirty days after the poll is demanded. The demand for a poll shall not prevent the continuance of a meeting for the transaction of any business other than the question on which the poll was demanded. If a poll is demanded before the declaration of the result of a show of hands and the demand is duly withdrawn by or on behalf of those who demanded it, the meeting shall continue as if the demand had not been made. The result of the poll will be treated as the resolution of the meeting at which the poll was demanded. No notice need be given of a poll not taken forthwith if the time and place at which it is to be taken are announced at the meeting at which it is demanded. In any other case at least seven clear days' notice shall be given specifying the time and place at which the poll is to be taken.

54. Unless these Rules or an Act of Parliament say otherwise, all resolutions are to be decided by a simple majority of the votes cast.

55. The Chair of any meeting may with the consent of a majority of the members present adjourn the meeting. The following are the arrangements for adjourned meetings:

- a. No business is to be transacted at any adjourned meeting other than the business not reached or left unfinished.
- b. An adjourned meeting is to be treated as a continuation of the original meeting but any resolution passed at an adjourned meeting is to be treated as having been passed on the date on which it is in fact passed.
- c. When a meeting is adjourned for fourteen days or more, at least seven clear days' notice shall be given specifying the time and place of the adjourned meeting and the general nature of the business to be transacted. Otherwise no notice need be given of an adjournment or of the business to be transacted at an adjourned meeting.

56. A proxy is to be appointed as follows:

- a. in writing;
- b. in any usual form or any other form which the Club Board may approve;
- c. under the hand of the appointor or of their attorney duly authorised in writing; and
- d. by depositing the appointment document at the registered office of the Club or at such other place within the United Kingdom as the Club shall specify not less than two clear days before the day fixed for the meeting at which the proxy is authorised to vote. Where the appointment document is exercised by an attorney on behalf of the appointor the authority under which it is executed or a copy of such authority certified notarially or in some other way approved by the Club Board is to be lodged with the appointment document.

If this procedure is not followed the appointment of the proxy will be invalid.

57. The following further rules apply to proxies.

- a. No person other than the Chair of the meeting can act as proxy for more than 3 members.
- b. Any question as to the validity of a proxy is to be determined by the Chair of the meeting whose decision is to be final.
- c. A proxy need not be a member of the Club.

58. A vote given or poll demanded by proxy or by the duly authorised deputy of a corporate body, shall be valid unless notice of termination of the authority is received by the Club at the registered office or at any other place at which the instrument of proxy was duly deposited before the commencement of the meeting or adjourned meeting at which the vote is given or the poll demanded.

59. No objection shall be raised to the qualification of any voter except at the meeting or adjourned meeting at which the vote objected to is tendered. Any objection made in due time about any vote whether tendered personally or by proxy is to be determined by the Chair of the meeting, whose decision is to be final. Every vote not disallowed at the meeting will be valid.

POSTAL BALLOTS

60. Where the Club Board considers that a significant issue has arisen which should be determined by the members of the Club the issue may be determined by a postal ballot of the members of the Club conducted in accordance with such procedure as the Club Board shall determine subject to the following principles:

- i. Notice of the ballot shall be given to each member of the Club in the same way as notice of a meeting is to be given;
- ii. The notice must set out clearly the issue to be decided;
- iii. Sufficient information must be provided to members to enable an informed decision to be made; and
- iv. The date by which voting papers are to be returned must be clearly stated.

In any case where a postal ballot is appropriate the Board may make such provision as it thinks fit to permit notice of the ballot to be given and voting to be conducted by electronic means.

CONSTITUTION OF CLUB BOARD

61. With effect from the Club's first general meeting, the Club Board is to have at least two members and will be made up as follows:

- a. Up to 5 members of the Club Board elected by the members in accordance with the most current election policy to be approved by the members.
- b. Members wishing to be considered for election to the Club Board should be endorsed by not fewer than 5 other members who, in granting their endorsement, state that to the best of their knowledge the member seeking election to the Club Board fulfils the criteria set out in these rules.
- c. Additional Members may be co-opted by the Club Board in accordance with a Board Membership Policy which it will develop and adopt and shall be required, if they are not already members, to become members of the Club. The purpose of the Board Membership Policy will be to ensure that:
 - i. the Club Board has the skills and experience which it needs to operate effectively;
 - ii. the interests of the community served by the Club are adequately represented;
 - iii. the level of representation of different groups on the Club board strikes an appropriate balance having regard to their legitimate interest in the Club's affairs.
- d. No person can be considered for election to the Club Board who has not been a member of the club in the two consecutive seasons preceding the General Meeting at which they stand for election to the board.

The following people in particular may be co-opted:

- (1) a representative or representatives of Local Authorities in the Area on behalf of those authorities and neighbouring local authorities;
- (2) a representative or representatives of the young;
- (3) a representative or representatives of supporters' groups
- (4) a representative of disabled supporters;
- (5) a representative of local business;
- (6) a representative or representatives of employees of the Club;
- (7) a representative of the players at the club, through a professional association or otherwise.

The number of co-optees serving shall always be less than half the number of Directors elected by members. For the avoidance of doubt, the number of elected members shall include those members co-opted under rule 70.

62. If at any time and for any reason after the first annual general meeting the number of members of the Club Board shall drop below two, the remaining Club Board member may act but only for the purpose of filling vacancies or calling a general meeting.

63. Until the first annual general meeting the members of the Club Board will be the people who sign these Rules in applying for registration and such other people as they co-opt.

64. Members of the Club Board will normally serve for periods of 2 years in accordance with the Board Membership Policy. Co-opted Club Board members may be re-appointed for a further period subject to these Rules.

65. Members of the Club Board will not receive any payment for serving on the Club Board other than:

- a. the payment of expenses incurred in carrying out their duties; and
- b. nominal Club Board Fees approved by the members in general meeting.

66. No person can be a member of the Club Board who:

- a. is subject to a bankruptcy order or has in place a composition with their creditors;
- b. is subject to a disqualification order made under the Company Directors Disqualification Act;
- c. has a conviction for an indictable offence (other than a spent conviction as defined by the Rehabilitation of Offenders Act 1974);
- d. is or may on the basis of medical evidence be suffering from mental disorder;
- e. fails to abide by any rules for the conduct of elections made by the Club Board.

67. Any member of the Club Board who:

- a. ceases to comply with the criteria set out in these Rules; or
- b. ceases to be a member of the Club; or
- c. resigns. is to vacate the office of Club Board member.

68. Any member of the Club Board who:

- a. fails without good cause to attend 3 consecutive Club Board meetings; or
- b. fails without good cause to participate in board training is to vacate the office of Club Board member if required to do so by a majority of the other Club Board members.

69. At the first annual general meeting of the Club half of the members of the Club Board first elected by the members (to be chosen by lot) will resign from office. Thereafter the half of the members of the Club Board elected by the members who have served the longest at the date of the annual general meeting each year will resign. If at any time there is an uneven number of elected directors, the Club Board shall decide the number of elected directors to resign in accordance with this Rule, which shall be approximately half of the total number.

70. Casual vacancies arising amongst the members of the Club Board elected by the members will be dealt with as follows.

- a. If a vacancy caused by retirement or removal is not filled at the meeting at which they retire or are removed, the vacancy may be filled by the Club Board.
- b. A vacancy occurring by death or resignation may be filled by the Club Board.
- c. In each case the member appointed to fill the vacancy is to retire at the next annual general meeting and the Club Board will make provision for an election to be held. For the avoidance of doubt the retiring member may stand for re-election at the meeting at which they retire.

71. A Club Board member may be removed from office by a resolution carried by the votes of not less than three quarters of the members present in person or by proxy and voting on a poll at an annual or special general meeting of the Club of which notice has been duly given. A Club Board member may be suspended from office by a resolution of the other members of the Club Board on the grounds of conduct detrimental to the interests of the Club subject to such Club Board member having been provided with a fair opportunity to be heard. Such suspension shall be for a period not exceeding 4 months.

CLUB BOARD MEETINGS

72. The Club Board may elect a Chair from amongst its members.

- a. If a candidate for the Chair is an elected Board member, a simple majority of the Club Board is required
- b. If a candidate for the Chair is a co-opted member of the Board, they shall require a simple majority of the Club Board, and a simple majority of the elected members of the Club Board.

73. The Club Board will meet at least 4 times in every calendar year at such times and places as they think fit. Seven clear days' notice of the date and place of each meeting is to be given in writing by the Secretary to all members of the Club Board to the Chief Executive and to such other members of the Executive Board as the Club Board desire to attend the meeting. Whichever is the greater of a minimum of 2 Club Board members elected by the membership, or 50% thereof, will form a quorum. A Club Board meeting may be called by shorter notice if it is so agreed by all the Club Board members entitled to attend and vote at the meeting. For the purposes of this rule, notice may be sent via email to an address registered with the Secretary or such other electronic means as may be preferred by Directors.

74. Unless the Club Board decides otherwise, the Chief Executive (if appointed) is to be invited to attend each meeting of the Club Board. Other members of the Executive Board are to attend meetings of the Club Board when requested to do so.

75. Meetings of the Club Board may be called either by the Secretary, or by a notice in writing given to the Secretary by the chair of the Club Board, or by two Club Board members who are not both elected by the members of the Club or both co-opted Board members, specifying the business to be discussed. The Secretary is to communicate every such notice to all Club Board members as soon as possible and the meeting is to be held at a venue decided by the Secretary not earlier than seven days and not later than fourteen days after the receipt by the Secretary of the notice. Should the Secretary fail to convene the meeting, the Chair or the two Club Board members who have given the notice in writing may call the meeting. No business is to be done at the meeting other than the business specified in the notice.

76. The Club Board may agree that its members can participate in its meetings by telephone video or computer link. Participation in a meeting in this manner shall be deemed to constitute presence in person at the meeting.

77. The Club Board may appoint specialist advisors to advise on any issue and may invite them to attend and speak (but not vote) at meetings of the Club Board.

78. Subject to the following provisions of this Rule, questions arising at a Club Board meeting shall be decided by a majority of votes. In case of an equality of votes at a Club Board meeting the Chair shall have a casting vote. No resolution may be passed if it does not have the support of one or more members of the Club Board elected by the members.

79. A resolution in writing signed by all members of the Club Board will have the same effect as a resolution passed at a meeting of the Club Board and may consist of several identical copies of a document each signed by one or more Club Board members. For the purposes of this rule, email sent declaring a preference on an issue, sent from an address registered with the Secretary shall be deemed a valid indication by that Director.

80. Save for the exceptions referred to below, no Club Board member is to have any material financial interest personally or as a member of a firm or company or as a director or other officer of a business trading for profit or in any other way whatsoever in any contract or other transaction with the Club. For the purposes of this rule, an interest of a person who is connected with a Club Board member shall be treated as an interest of the Club Board member. The exceptions are that Club Board members may:

- a. be paid expenses including travelling expenses;
- b. receive Club Board fees;
- c. if they are co-opted members of the Club Board be employees of the Club
- d. declare an interest in a particular contract or issue and:
 - (i) not be present except with the permission of the Club Board in any discussion of the contract or issue;
 - (ii) not vote on the contract or issue (and if by inadvertence they do remain and vote, their vote is not to be counted).

81. Any member of the Club Board who discloses a financial interest as described in the preceding Rule must vacate their office either for a period or permanently if requested so to do by a majority of the remaining members of the Club Board. Any member of the Club Board who fails to disclose any interest required to be disclosed under the preceding Rule must permanently vacate their office if required to do so by a majority of the remaining Club Board members.

WORKING GROUPS OF THE CLUB BOARD

82. The Club Board may establish working groups, if considered appropriate, to assist it in carrying out its business. Working groups may make recommendations to the Club Board, provide the Club Board with information, and carry out such operations as are delegated to them on behalf of the Club Board, including powers reserved for the Club Board under these rules that have been properly delegated to a working group.

83. The Club Board will approve the Chair of each working group, normally a member of the Club Board. Where there is no member of the Club Board able to act as Chair the Chair may be any member of the Club who is deemed capable by the Club Board of acting as Chair under their supervision. The Club Board shall decide and approve and produce a public, written record of the scope of each working group. The Club Board shall delegate to the Chair of a working group appropriate budgets for each working group where deemed necessary.

84. Working groups may hold such meetings as they consider are necessary to carry out their business. The Chair of each working group shall be responsible for ensuring that minutes are taken at each meeting and will submit these to the Society Board. If the Chair of a working group is not present at a meeting the group will elect another member to chair that meeting, and must record this in the minutes. If available, the Chair of the meeting should be elected from amongst any board members present at that meeting.

EXECUTIVE BOARD

85. The Executive Board may have the following members who will be full or part time employees of the Club:

- a. a Chief Executive
- b. a Finance Director
- c. a Human Resources Director
- d. such other Executives as the Club Board thinks appropriate.

86. If the Club carries out any part of its business through a trading subsidiary company or society trading for the benefit of the community members of the Executive Board or the Club Board shall be the directors or board of management of the subsidiary.

87. The members of the Executive Board will be appointed by the Club Board on terms agreed and approved by the Club Board. The members of the Executive Board may be removed by the Club Board.

88. No person can be a member of the Executive Board who:
- a. has been declared bankrupt or compounded with their creditors;
 - b. is subject to a disqualification order made under the Company Directors Disqualification Act;
 - c. has been convicted of an indictable offence which is not a spent conviction as defined in the Rehabilitation of Offenders Act 1974;
 - d. is or may on the basis of medical evidence be suffering from mental disorder.
89. The Executive Board if appointed will meet at least once each month at such times and places as it thinks fit. Where practicable, seven clear days' notice of the date and place of each meeting is to be given in writing by the Secretary to all members of the Executive Board. A resolution in writing signed by all the members of the Executive Board shall be as valid and effectual as if it had been passed at a meeting of the Executive Board duly convened and held and may consist of several documents in the like form each signed by one or more Executive Board members.
90. The Executive Board may agree that its members can participate in its meetings by telephone video or computer link. Participation in a meeting in this manner shall be deemed to constitute presence in person at the meeting.
91. Save for the exceptions referred to below, no Executive Board member is to have any material financial interest personally or as a member of a firm or company or as a director or other officer of a business trading for profit or in any other way whatsoever in any contract or other transaction with the Club. For the purposes of this rule an interest of a person who is connected with an Executive Board member shall be treated as an interest of the Executive Board member. The exceptions are that Executive Board members may:
- a. receive a salary and other benefits under a service contract with the Club;
 - b. have an interest in a particular contract or issue if they shall first have explained their interest to the Executive Board and the Club Board and:
 - (i) are not present except with the permission of the Executive Board in any discussion of the contract or issue;
 - (ii) do not vote on the contract or issue (and if by inadvertence they do remain and vote, their vote is to not be counted).
92. Any member of the Executive Board who discloses a financial interest as described in the preceding Rule must vacate their office either for a period or permanently if requested so to do by the Club Board. Any member of the Executive Board who fails to disclose any interest required to be disclosed under the preceding Rule must permanently vacate their office if required to do so by the Club Board.

FINANCIAL AUDIT

93. The Club Board will in respect of each year of account ending on June 30th:
- a. cause to be prepared a revenue account or revenue accounts which:
 - (i) singly or together deal with the affairs of the Club and any subsidiary company or club as a whole for that year; and
 - (ii) give a true and fair view of the income and expenditure of the Club and any subsidiary company or club for that year;
 - b. cause to be prepared a balance sheet giving at that date a true and fair view of the state of the affairs of the Club and any subsidiary company or club.
94. The Club Board is to lay a revenue account and balance sheet duly audited and signed by the auditor and incorporating the report of the auditor thereon before each annual general meeting, accompanied by a report by the Club Board on the position of the affairs of the Club and any subsidiary or holding company or club signed by the chair of the Club Board meeting at which the report is adopted.

95. The Club Board is not to cause to be published any balance sheet unless it has previously been audited by the auditor and it incorporates a report by the auditor that it gives a true and fair view of the income and expenditure, or the state of the affairs of the Club, as the case may be. Every revenue account and balance sheet published is to be signed by the Secretary and by two Club Board members acting on behalf of the Club Board.

96. A qualified auditor must be appointed to audit the Club's accounts and a balance sheet for each financial year. In this rule "qualified auditor" means a person who is a qualified auditor under Section 7 of the Friendly and Industrial and Provident Societies Act 1968 and Section 25 of the Companies Act 1989.

97. The auditor shall, in accordance with Section 9 of the Friendly and Industrial and Provident Societies Act 1968, make a report to the Club on the accounts examined by them and on the revenue account or accounts and the balance sheet of the Club for the year in question.

98. None of the following persons is to be appointed as auditor of the Club:

- a. an officer or servant of the Club; or
- b. a person who is a partner or close relative of or in the employment of or who employs an officer or servant of the Club.

99. Save as provided in this Rule every appointment of an auditor is to be made by resolution of a general meeting of the Club. The exceptions are:

- a. the first appointment of an auditor is to be made within three months of the registration of the Club and is to be made by the Club Board if no general meeting of the Club is held within that time;
- b. the Club Board may appoint an auditor to fill any casual vacancy occurring between general meetings of the Club.

100. An auditor appointed to audit the accounts and balance sheet of the Club for the preceding year of account (whether by a general meeting or by the Club Board) is to be reappointed as auditor of the Club for the current year of account (whether or not any resolution expressly re-appointing them has been passed) unless:

- a. a resolution has been passed at a general meeting of the Club appointing somebody instead of them or providing expressly that they are not to be re-appointed; or
- b. they have given to the Club notice in writing of their unwillingness to be re-appointed; or
- c. they are not permitted by these Rules to be the auditor; or
- d. they have ceased to act as auditor of the Club by reason of incapacity;
- e. proper notice of an intended resolution to appoint another person in their place has been given but the resolution cannot be proceeded with because of the death or incapacity of that other person.

101. A resolution at a general meeting of the Club:

- (i) appointing another person as auditor in place of a retiring auditor; or
- (ii) providing expressly that a retiring auditor is to not be re-appointed will not be effective unless notice of the intention to move it has been given to the Club not less than twenty-eight days before the meeting at which it is to be moved.

If such a notice is given the following procedure will be adopted:

- (a) The Club will send a copy of the notice to the retiring auditor.
- (b) If it is practicable to do so the Club will give notice of the intended resolution to its members with the notice of the meeting.

(c) If that is not practicable, the Club will publish details of the notice by advertisement not less than seven days before the meeting in a newspaper circulating in the area in which the Club conducts its business.

(d) If the retiring auditor makes any representations in writing to the Club in response to the notice or notifies the Club that they intend to make such representations, the Club will notify the members as required by Section 6 of the Friendly and Industrial and Provident Societies Act 1968.

PERFORMANCE AUDIT

102. A general meeting of the Club may require the Club Board to appoint appropriate people to act as auditors of the achievement by the Club of its objects or any aspect of the Club's performance of its obligations under these Rules.

ANNUAL RETURNS

103. The Club will make an annual return to the Registrar as required by the Act.

104. The Club will supply a copy of the last annual return with all supporting documents to any member on request and without charge.

AMENDMENT TO RULES

105. Unless these Rules say otherwise any Rule may be altered or rescinded, or any new rule may be made, by resolution of at least two thirds of these members who vote in person or by proxy at a general meeting. No change to these Rules shall be valid until registered.

106. The following Rules may only be changed by a majority of at least three quarters of the members who vote in person or by proxy at a general meeting:

- a. Rules 1 – 6 inclusive
- b. Rule 12
- c. This Rule 106
- d. Rule 107
- e. Rule 108
- f. Rule 113

107. A resolution to amend this Rule, Rule 6 and Rule 113 must be approved by not less than three quarters of those voting in the meeting called or ballot held to consider it. In addition:

- a. the quorum at any general meeting called to consider a resolution to amend shall be not less than one half of the members entitled to vote at the meeting if the Club has up to 200 members when the meeting is called; not less than one third of the members entitled to vote at the meeting if the Club has more than 200 but less than 1000 members when the meeting is called; and not less than one quarter of the members entitled to vote at the meeting if the Club has more than 1000 members when the meeting is called.
- b. If the Club has more than 2000 members, a resolution to amend this Rule, Rule 6 and Rule 113 must be determined by a postal ballot conducted under Rule 60. For such a resolution to be approved, at least one-quarter of the members eligible to vote in a postal ballot must return their ballots by the due date and of those returning, threequarters must vote in favour of the resolution.

108. The Act provides that the Club may by special resolution:

- a. amalgamate with another Club or a company registered under the Companies Acts
- b. transfer its engagements to another club or a company registered under the

Companies Acts

- c. convert itself into a company registered under the Companies Acts

The quorum at any general meeting called to consider such a resolution shall be 50% of the members entitled to attend and vote at the meeting unless the resolution proposes an amalgamation with or transfer of engagements to another industrial and provident club trading for the benefit of the community and having provisions in its rules substantially identical to Rule 6, Rule 113 and this Rule 108.

INVESTMENT AND BORROWING

109. The funds of the Club may, to the extent permitted by the law for the time being in force and with the authority of the Club Board, be invested:

- a. in the shares of any company or society;
 - b. in any manner expressly authorised by the Act;
- but are not to be invested otherwise.

110. The Club may borrow money on such terms as the Club Board shall authorize.

111. A duly appointed receiver or manager of the whole or part of the Club's property may assume such powers of the Club Board or the Executive Board as he or she considers necessary to carry out his or her duties under the instrument of appointment.

DISSOLUTION

112. The Club may be dissolved by the consent of three-quarters of the members who sign an instrument of dissolution in the form provided by Treasury Regulations or by winding-up in the manner provided by the Act.

113. If on the winding up or dissolution of the Club there remains, after the satisfaction of all its debts and liabilities any property whatsoever the same is to be transferred to:

- a. a sporting charity or sporting charities operating in the Area; and/or
- b. one or more societies established for the benefit of the community operating in the Area; and/or
- c. one or more societies established for the benefit of the community in each case as determined by the members at a meeting called to decide the issue. Nothing belonging to the Club shall be transferred to any other society unless that club has in its rules a rule substantially in the terms of this Rule.

INDEMNITY

114. Officers are entitled to be indemnified by the Club against all costs, losses and expenses which they may reasonably incur in discharge of their duties, including travelling expenses, and the amount for which such indemnity is provided will immediately attach as a charge on the property of the Club.

115. No officer is to be liable for any loss happening to the Club through the execution of the duties of their office, unless the loss be the consequence of their own dishonesty or gross negligence. Subject to the provisions of the Act every officer is to be indemnified out of the assets of the Club against any liability incurred by him or her in defending any proceedings, whether civil or criminal, in which judgment is given in his or her favour or in which he or she is acquitted or in connection with any application in which relief is granted to him or her by the Court from liability for negligence, default, breach of duty or breach of Club in relation to the affairs of the Club.

MISCELLANEOUS ADMINISTRATIVE PROVISIONS

116. Anything done in good faith by any meeting of the Club Board or the Executive Board shall be valid, notwithstanding that it is afterwards discovered that there was any defect in the appointment of any board member or board members or that any one or more of them were disqualified and shall be as valid as if every board member had been duly appointed and was duly qualified to serve.

117. The Club will not be entitled to rely against other persons on any alteration in its Rules if the alteration had not been registered at the material time and is not shown by the Club to have been known at that time to the person concerned.

118. Minutes of every general meeting, of every meeting of the Club and Executive Boards and of every meeting of a committee appointed by the Club Board are to be kept. Minutes of meetings will be read at the next meeting and signed by the Chair of that meeting. The signed minutes will be conclusive evidence of the events of the meeting.

119. The Club's registered office is Broadhurst Park, 310 Lightbowne Road, Moston. Manchester. M40 0FJ. The Club is to keep at its registered office:

- a. a register in which the Secretary is to enter the following particulars:
 - (i) the names and addresses of the members;
 - (ii) details of the share held by each member and of the amount paid or agreed to be considered as paid for that share;
 - (iii) a statement of other property in the Club whether in loans or loan stock held by each member;
 - (iv) the date at which each person was entered in the register as a member and the date at which any person ceased to be a member;
 - (v) details of any deputy appointed by any corporate member;
 - (vi) the names and addresses of the members of the Club and Executive Boards with the offices held by them and the dates on which they assumed office.
- b. a duplicate register in which the Secretary is to enter all the particulars in the original register of members other than those referred to in (a) (ii) and (iii) above;
- c. a register of the holders of loan stock in which the Secretary is to enter such particulars as the Club Board direct and register all transfers of loan stock;
- d. a register in which the Secretary is to enter such particulars of all mortgages and charges on land of the Club as the Club Board directs.

120. Subject to the provisions of the Data Protection Act the registers to be maintained by the Club may be kept in electronic form.

121. The inclusion or omission of the name of any person from the original register of members shall, in the absence of evidence to the contrary, be conclusive evidence that such person is or is not a member of the Club.

122. The Club is to keep proper books of account with respect to its transactions and to its assets and liabilities in accordance with Sections 1 and 2 of the Friendly and Industrial and Provident Societies Act 1968.

123. Members are entitled to inspect:

- a. their own account
- b. the duplicate register at the registered office at any reasonable time.

124. The Secretary is to deliver a copy of these Rules to every person on demand on payment of an amount fixed by the Club Board subject to the statutory maximum.

125. Notice of any change in the address of the registered office is to be sent by the Secretary to the Financial Services Authority in the form prescribed by Treasury Regulations within fourteen days of the change.

126. The registered name of the Club is to be displayed on the outside of the registered office and every other office or place in which the business of the Club is carried on. The registered name of the Club is also to be mentioned in legible characters in all:

- a. business letters, notices, advertisements and other official publications
- b. bills of exchange, promissory notes, endorsements, cheques and orders for money or goods purporting to be signed by or on behalf of the Club
- c. bills, invoices, receipts and letters of credit of the Club.

127. The Club is registered under the Industrial and Provident Societies Acts 1965-78 (referred to as "the Act" in these Rules). Any references to the Act include reference to any statutory re-enactment and/or modification. Any reference to the Chief Registrar, Registrar, Central Office, Assistant Registrar, Registry of Friendly Societies or the Financial Services Authority includes reference to the statutory successor carrying on the relevant function of any of them.

DISPUTES

128. Every unresolved dispute which arises out of these Rules between the Club and:

- a. a member; or
- b. any person aggrieved who has ceased to be a member within the six months prior to the date of the dispute; or
- c. any person claiming through such member or person aggrieved; or
- d. any person bringing a claim under the rules of the Club; or
- e. an officer of the Club is to be submitted to an arbitrator agreed by the parties or nominated by the Chief Executive of Supporters Direct where no agreement is possible. The arbitrator's decision will be binding and conclusive on all parties.

129. Any person bringing a complaint must deposit with the Club the sum of £500 or such other reasonable sum as the Club Board shall decide. The arbitrator will decide how the costs of the arbitration will be paid and what should be done with the deposit.

ADVERTISING

130. The clothing (i.e. playing kit) of players representing the Club shall not include any advertising thereon, except as follows, which shall not be considered to be advertising:-

- a. The trade mark (i.e. logo) and/or name of the clothing manufacturer or a combination of same.
- b. The emblem of the Club (i.e. badge, name, initials or nickname, or a combination of such)
- c. Players' numbers and/or (where association, league and/or competition rules so permit) the players' names.
- d. Subject to having obtained (where applicable) the prior permission from the appropriate authority, the recognised badge or emblem of the appropriate association, league and/or competition, where the rules of the association, league and/or competition require such a badge or emblem to be placed on the Club's playing kit.
- e. Any advertising, badge, logo or other mandated by the appropriate authority as a requirement for participation in that competition.

This Rule 130 (Advertising) may only be altered or rescinded by resolution of at least two thirds of the members who vote in person or by proxy at a general meeting.

FOOTBALL ASSOCIATION MANDATORY PROVISION(S)

Where these regulations refer to 'Company' it shall be deemed to apply to this Society.

131. (i) “The members and the directors of the Company shall so exercise their rights, powers and duties and shall where appropriate use their best endeavours to ensure that others conduct themselves so that the business and affairs of the Company are carried out in accordance with the Rules and regulations of The Football Association Limited for the time being in force.

(ii) No proposed alteration to the provisions set out herein shall be effective unless the proposed alteration has been approved in writing by The Football Association Limited 14 days or more before the day on which the alteration is proposed to take place.

(iii) The office of (a/an Director/Officer or Official) shall be vacated if such person is subject to a decision of The Football Association Limited that such person be suspended from holding office or from taking part in any football activity relating to the administration or management of a football club.”
